Dear Ms. Adesso:

This is in response to your U.S. General Services Administration (GSA) Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request (GSA-2016-001252), submitted on September 21, 2015, in which you requested the following:

"All open records for Jefferson Boettger of Pleasant Hill Iowa previously in the Army FOIA and Official Military Personnel Files (OMPF) The public has access to certain military service information without the veteran's authorization or that of the next-of-kin (the un-remarried widow or widower, son, daughter, father, mother, brother or sister) of deceased veterans. Examples of information which may be available from Federal (non-archival) Official Military Personnel Files (OMPF) without an unwarranted invasion of privacy include: Name Service Number Dates of Service Branch of Service Final Duty Status Final Rank Salary * Assignments and Geographical Locations Source of Commission * Military Education Level Promotion Sequence Number * Awards and decorations (eligibility only, not actual medals) Photograph Transcript of Courts-Martial Trials Place of entrance and separation If the veteran is deceased: Place of birth Date and geographical location of death Place of burial *Items rarely available in the records we maintain. FOIA and Official Personnel Folders (OPF) Most information in a Federal (non-archival) Official Personnel Folder (OPF) is not releasable to the general public without the written consent of the individual whose record is involved. The Freedom of Information Act does allow, however, for certain information to be released without the individual's consent. The Office of Personnel Management (OPM) has determined that the following information can be released to the public: Name Past and present positions Past and present titles Past and present salaries Past and present grades Past and present job locations."

Our search of GSA records failed to identify any records or files that are responsive to your request.

Since GSA does not have any records within the scope of your request, this does not constitute a denial of records. However, you can appeal the adequacy of GSA's search by writing within 90 days (February 6, 2017) of your receipt of this letter to:

U.S General Services Administration
1800 F Street, NW, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405
Telephone: (855) 675-3642
Fax: (202) 501-2727

U.S. General Services Administration
Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) Requester Service Center
1800 F. Street, Northwest, Room 7308
Washington, DC 20405

Your appeal must be in writing and should contain a brief statement of the reasons why GSA should have the requested information. Enclose a copy of your initial request and a copy of this letter. Both the appeal letter and envelope should be prominently marked, "Freedom of Information Act Appeal."

We suggest you file a FOIA request with the Army Office of the Inspector General. Their website is provided below: <http://usarmy.pentagon.hqda-otig.mbx.saig-zxl@mail.mil>
